He also wishes to call attention to the fact that scintillating or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monastery of Ky is the only one in this country that has been so far enough to reach those formations that are invaluable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his quarry with ferris wheels, and is now erecting a large saw, pump, and

CITY ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.

The republicans of the city of Janesville are requested to meet in a mass convention at the Court Room in the city of Janesville, on Friday the 28th inst.

at 7 o'clock in the evening, to nominate a candidate for member of assembly for said city, to be supported at the ensuing election.

O. J. DEARBORN,
GEO. BARNES,
C. R. GIBBS,
Sept. 26th, 1880.

Arrangements for Chicago.

We are informed that arrangements have been completed by which the Wide-Awakes of this city will be carried to and brought back from Chicago next Tuesday for $1 each. Headquarters for the club have already been selected on Lake street. Tickets for the trip may be procured of G. S. Strasberger, at the railroad office.

The fare for others than the Wide-Awakes will be half the usual price.

Wisconsin Conference.

The conference commenced its session this morning at 9 o'clock, Bishop Scott presiding. S. W. Ford was chosen secretary, R. M. Beach and J. C. Dana, assistant secretaries. Standing committees were appointed, and considerable business, mostly of a preliminary nature, was accomplished. After the organization of the conference, and the appointment of the committee, Bishop Scott made some very wise and impressive remarks, relative to the spiritual character of ministers, and their duty to each other. He spoke also of the great importance of ministerial punctuality.

The business sessions of the conference will commence at 8, and adjourn at 11:45 A. M. Religious services will be held at 2:30 and 7 P. M.

The sermon last evening was by Rev. M. Hinebaugh, of Appleton; Subject—"Well Doing." Rev. T. Wilcox, of Oconomowoc, will preach this evening.

ATTENTION

Wide Awakes!

The Wide Awakes are requested to meet at the Court Room this evening for drill. Let every member come with torch and cape.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday as Mr. Z. S. Doty, Esq., of this city was riding on Mr. Prop's sprinkling wagon, holding on some barrels, while crossing drain he was thrown off, striking upon his head and shoulders and injuring him severely.

On Thursday and Friday mornings a train will leave the passenger depot, over the Milwaukee and Mississippi road, at 8 o'clock, for Madison, for the accommodation of those who may wish to attend the state fair, returning at 8 o'clock in the evening.

To-morrow commences the tournament of the state firemen, at Madison. The prizes to be played for are those given by the state agricultural society, amounting to $150. Two trumpets, each of the value of $75, are the prizes, open to all machines but those of Madison, to be played for on quantity only, and to be awarded to a first class and a second class machine.

On Friday, all machines on the ground, including those of Madison, will play on distance and quantity; also a race between hook and ladder companies and hose companies with four-wheeled carriages—distance half-mile. Hook and ladder companies to raise a second story ladder against wall, and hose companies to turn round and lay 100 feet of hose. Three prizes to be awarded—two of $75 each, and two of $50 each; one of the latter, however, is set apart for the race, provided there are two or more companies to compete for it.

Friday will be a gala day with the firemen, and those who feel an interest in their manoeuvres, will find here and find food for their fullest enjoyment. We learn that ten or eleven companies (and perhaps more) will be there to compete for the prizes.

A shanty belonging to Jas. O'Neil, near the passenger depot, was burned down last evening about 7 o'clock. The furniture was all saved.

There will be a meeting of the Wide-Awakes this evening, all interested attend promptly.

OFF FOR THE TOURNAMENT.—The Water Witch boys will leave for Madison to-night at 1 o'clock. Their bell will ring at 12 o'clock to wake-up the members. They will return, we expect, sometime Friday evening, with a genuine prize—"a bend down on her, boys."

The Northwestern Conference of Universalists is in session at Chicago. The Rev. S. C. Bulkeley, of this city, is one of the secretaries.

PREMIUM LIST.—The premium list of our county fair has not been furnished for publication. We should have been glad to have published it in our weekly this week, had a copy been sent to us.

FOUND.—A gold pencil case was picked up on the fair ground during the county fair. The owner can hear of it at this office.

Mr. S. P. Condee, in the course of his duties as census taker, says the Monroe State Rights, has probably discovered the first born in southern Wisconsin, in Mrs. J. D. Cunningham, born in 1826, in a cabin in between Hazel Green, in Grant county, and Boston, in Lafayette county.

Mr. Crittenden's recent speech at Independence, in Kentucky, utterly repudiates the idea of resistance from any quarter to a constitutionally elected president. There is no danger of any, while the president holds in his gift one hundred thousand public offices.—Baltimore Patriot.

The gentleman so often spoken of in novels, who rivetted people with his gaze, has obtained employment in a boiler manufactory.

Second Assembly District.

The republican convention of assembly district No. 2 met at Johnstown on Saturday, the 24th inst., according to the call of the committee, for the purpose of nominating a member to the next legislature, and was called to order by P. C. Stillman.

On motion, A. Hoskins was appointed chairman, and A. Whitford secretary.

M. T. Walker and A. W. Smith were appointed by the chair a committee on credentials.

The committee upon credentials then made their report which was accepted, and the committee discharged.

On motion, George Sherman and Jacob Fowle were appointed tellers.

On the informal ballot there were twenty-four votes cast, of which E. Vincent received 4, A. M. Carter 2, B. F. Carey 7, J. E. Culver 5 and A. Sherman 5.

On the sixth formal ballot, B. F. Carey received 16 votes, and was declared unanimously nominated.

Upon call of the convention, Mr. Carey responded in a few appropriate remarks and accepted the nomination.

Edward Vincent, W. H. Stark and Guy Carter were appointed by the chair a district committee for the ensuing year.

A. HOSKINS, Chairman.

A. WHITFORD, Secretary.

The death of N. C. Geer, formerly editor and publisher of the Wauegan Gazette, and recently of the Peoria Daily Transcript, was announced a few days since.

We now learn from the Transcript that Mrs. Geer also died on Saturday, after a few days' illness. Her death leaves five children, the youngest a babe of only five weeks old, and the oldest only 12 or 13 years of age, without other protection than that which will be bestowed by kind relatives.

THE TROUT OF LAKE BIGLER.—A friend who has been sojourning in the neighborhood of Lake Bigler, California, during the past three months, informs us that it is not unusual to take mountain trout there which weigh from six to twelve pounds. He himself caught one that weighed ten pounds, and a fisherman was reported to have taken one weighing twenty-three pounds.—Spirit of the Times.

A HUGS STRAW.—There are one hundred and three Germans in this township who have declared their intention to vote for Lincoln and Hamlin, who voted in 1856 for Buchanan; making a gain of two hundred and six for the republican ticket.—Lafayette (Ind.) Journal 11th.

The City Treasurer.
Has removed his office to the room over the Great Market on the upper bridge, and he respectfully gives notice to all who have not paid in their taxes to do so without delay, and save costs, as the time for collecting the same is drawing to a close.

City Nominating Convention.

The call for a city mass meeting to nominate a republican candidate for the assembly has been issued by the city committee, and will be found in our local column.

The meeting and its object is an important one, and we hope to see a full attendance of the republicans of the city.

Douglasism and Disunion.

Our Douglas democratic orators and newspapers talk a great deal about treason. They assume to be the only patriotic men in the nation, and with an offensive egotism vaunt themselves as the peculiar friends of the union, while they denounce republicans as traitors to the country and the constitution. It has often been noticed before this, in the history of mankind, that those who make the loudest professions are not the most sincere, and that when an individual desires to cover up his own delinquencies he not infrequently boldly charges upon others the crime he is guilty of himself.

The frequency and pertinacity with which this charge of treason and disunion is made by Douglas and his followers, renders them liable to the suspicion that they are not guiltless of evil intentions towards the integrity of the Union. At their convention at Baltimore they nominated Mr. Fitzpatrick, of Alabama, for the Vice Presidency, a secessionist, who in 1848, signed Calhoun's famous manifesto to the south, filled with appeals to the interests, prejudices and passions of the slaveholders, and the ultra doctrines of that great chieftain of slavery. If the Douglas democracy were sincerely opposed to treasonable efforts to dissolve the Union, they could not have nominated Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Upon his declaration they nominated, in his place, Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia, another fire-eater and avowed disunionist. We published on Tuesday, a letter written by Mr. Johnson to a committee of gentlemen of Augusta, Ga., in 1851. In this letter he distinctly avows that "the great issue is THE RIGHT OF A STATE TO SECEDE FROM THE UNION;" he declares that "the right of secession will probably at no distant day assume the form and magnitude of PRACTICAL IMPORTANCE;" and we say, "obtain shelter under the broad shield of this constitution? NO! All these are as pack-thread to restrain an irrepressible and fatal majority." The remedy he proposes is this: "THE RIGHT OF SECESSION MUST BE MAINTAINED. IT IS THE LAST, THE ONLY HOPE OF THE SOUTH."

So we see that the Douglas party, which vaunts itself as the peculiar friend of the Union, as against all other parties, has a candidate upon its ticket, nominated for Vice President, who declares that a state may leave the Union whenever it pleases, and that secession is the only hope of the South! With such a record as this they must possess an immense amount of brass to enable them to shout treason and disunion in the ears of republicans! When they come to vote next fall, they ought to have on their tickets—"Johnson, and the right of a state to dissolve the Union!"—inasmuch as every man who votes the Douglas and Johnson ticket sanctions this sentiment, so plainly and defiantly proclaimed by their candidate for the Vice Presidency.

Jacob Willett, well known as the author of Willett's Arithmetic, and other school books, and for many years a successful teacher, died at his residence in Mechanics, Dutchess county, New York, on the 12th inst., aged 79 years. He was an upright and consistent member of the Society of Friends, and universally esteemed for his many virtues.

The Great Demonstration in Chicago.

The preparations for the reception and speech of Senator Seward in Chicago next Tuesday are such as to warrant the belief that it will be the largest and most imposing demonstration of the campaign. Mr. Douglas is to follow him on Friday, and the friends of both are stirring to excel in numbers, style and effect. The various railroads leading into Chicago will carry passengers at half fare, and for the Seward reception a most brilliant wide-awake display is contemplated. This body in the republican organization will be numbered by thousands, and those who have not witnessed such an assemblage have little idea of its imposing character. It is expected that the display will exceed anything yet seen in the west, and it will certainly pay the cost of the trip to witness it. From what we hear, we anticipate there will be a large attendance from Rock county and this section of Wisconsin.

Mr. Douglas claimed that the right of sovereignty of the people of a territory—the right to form for themselves a sovereign state—remains suspended in the "United States," subject to recognized forms and rules which have uniformly governed in such cases.—Milwaukee People's Press.

Yes, Mr. Douglas claimed that, and more, in his Kansas report. He insists that "the sovereignty of a territory remains in abeyance, suspended in the United States, in trust for the people, until they shall be admitted into the Union as a state." Territories, under this doctrine, have no sovereignty at all. "They are," as Douglas said, in congress on another occasion, "subject to the jurisdiction and control of congress during their infancy—their minority."

If this is popular sovereignty in the territories, how can the people, while in a territorial state, make their own laws, choose their own institutions, and exclude or protect any species of property, without the consent of congress?

They are represented as minors under the control of congress, which, in the mean time has the sovereignty which will be theirs when they become of age—when they are admitted as states.

While in this condition congress is answerable for what they do. If they are permitted to legislate for themselves, and they enact a slave code, congress is responsible; and lastly, the people of the United States, who elect congressmen, are also responsible for the slave code. This is the reason why we in Wisconsin are bound to take notice of what is done in the territories—we are accountable for it, as we are a state and one of the guardians of these territories during their minority.

If we dislike slavery—if we believe it to be a moral and political evil—we neglect our duty as the guardians of these territories if we permit them to protect slaveholding by the enactment of a slave code.

It is frequently said that we have no right to discuss the subject of slavery in the free states, inasmuch as it is a state institution, and that if we do so, we must mean to abolish it in the states. It can be very readily seen by what has been said by Mr. Douglas, that we have an interest in the question, whenever it is proposed to introduce the institution into the territories. Hence we investigate the subject. We do not see how we can avoid it, as the whole people are responsible for it, if it is permitted to be extended to the territories—the sovereignty over them being in the nation at large.

Taking this view of it—we have the right to exclude slavery entirely, by act of congress, from all the territories; if, after we have examined the subject, we find that it is a moral, social or political evil. Nay, it is our duty as moralists and good citizens to do this. No one, we think can avoid this logical and fair conclusion.

But, in view of what Douglas has said, which is quoted above, how can there be any such thing as popular sovereignty in the territories? If any of his followers can show us, we will admit that an impossibility can be performed.

"SIX FEET FOUR—LINCOLN AND SLOAN."—The campaign in the third district is opening gloriously. A correspondent of the Madison Journal in one of the hitherto democratic counties says:—"From present indications Sloan will have a wonderful vote. He is popular and Larrabee very unpopular. If the election were to-morrow, Sloan would have 1,500 majority."

"It is difficult to estimate the result on the presidential ticket. Our county is 500 democratic, but we hear of accessions from the Germans every day. In two towns we expect nearly the entire German vote. We shall 'carry the war into Africa,' and have the country all in a blaze before election. Our motto is 'Six feet four—Lincoln and Sloan!'"

A CITY TAX.—At the last meeting of the common council of Madison, the city clerk announced that he had issued to the treasurer of the State Agricultural Society special orders amounting to $1,000, payable out of a special tax.

Such a tax in Janesville would stand a slim chance for collection.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Only four counties in New Hampshire show a larger population than Rock county.

A NEW TERROR.—The doughfaces (says the Chicago Journal) are giving the Southern fire-eaters a new cause of alarm. They declare to them that the republican "Wide Awake" clubs are are organizing so formidably at the North, are nothing more nor less than military companies, the object being to raise a great military army to coerce the South into submission when Lincoln shall take the Presidential chair.

This is quite as sensible as the charge that northern abolitionists are sent by emigrant aid societies into Texas to poison wells, excite insurrections among the slaves and murder the people of that state.

P. Curran, esq., who has been appointed by the British government to enquire into the working of the educational system of the United States, is now in Chicago examining the schools of that city.

OPENING OF A SESSION OF CONGRESS BY WASHINGTON.—It was, I think in 1794 or '95, that as a boy I was among the spectators congregated at the corner and parts of the city, to witness a great public spectacle.

Washington was to open the session of Congress by going in person, as was his custom, to deliver a speech to both houses assembled in the chamber of the House of Representatives. The crowd was immense considering the size of our city, for although then the largest in the country, its population was hardly more than forty-five thousand.

It filled the whole area in Chesnut street, the State House extended along the line of Chesnut street, and spread north and south some distance along Sixth street. A way kept open for carriages in the middle of the street, was the only place not closely packed with people. I had a stand on the steps of one of the houses in Chesnut street, which, raising me above the mass of human heads, enabled me to see to advantage. After waiting long hours, as it seemed to a boy's impatience, the carriage of the President at length slowly drove up, drawn by four beautiful bay horses. It was white, with medallion ornaments on the panels, and the liveries of the servants, as well as I remember, white turned up with red; at any rate a glowing livery; the entire display in equipages at that era, in our country generally, and in Philadelphia in particular, while the seats of government, being more rich and varied than now, though fewer in number, as the nation got out of its carriage, and slowly crossing the pavement, ascended the steps of the edifice, upon the upper one of which he paused, and, turning half round, looked in the direction of a carriage which had followed in the lead of his own. Thus he stood for a minute, distinctly seen by everybody. He stood in all his black velvet, his hair, if it be bleached by time, powdered to snow whiteness, a dress suit at his side, and his hand in his hand.—Thus he stood in silence; and what moments these were! Throughout the dense crowd, profound stillness reigned. Not a word was heard. It was a feeling beyond that which vents itself in shouts. Every heart was full. In vain would any tongue have spoken. All were at a gaze in mute admiration. Every eye was riveted upon his majestic form. It might have seemed as if he stood in that position to gratify the assembled thousands with a full view of the father of their country. Not so. He had paused for his secretary, then I believe, Mr. Dandridge or Colonel Lear, who got out of the other carriage—a chariot—decorated like his own. His secretary, ascending the steps, handed him a paper—probably a copy of the speech he was to deliver—when both entered the building. Then, it was not until then, that the crowd set up huzzas, loud, long, and enthusiastic.—Rush's Occasional Products.

GIRLS DON'T YOU DO IT.—There is a practice prevalent among young ladies of the present day, which we are old-fashioned enough to consider very improper. We all know the danger of the daguerotype to young men who are merely acquaintances. We consider it indecent in the highest degree. We are astonished that any young girl should sell herself so cheap as this.—With an accepted lover it is of course all right. Even in this case the likeness should be returned, if the engagement should, by any misunderstanding, cease. If this little paragraph should meet the eye of any girl who is about to give her daguerotype to any gentleman acquaintance, let her know that the remarks made by young men when together, concerning perhaps on her part but a piece of ignorance or imprudence, would, if she heard them, cause her cheek to crimson with shame and anger. Were it a sister of ours, we have often said, with a flashing eye—"were it a sister of ours!" but that not of the same name, we give this advice to anybody's sister who reads it, most anxiously desiring that she should at all times preserve her dignity and self-respect.

The foundation of the structure cost $60,000, and a contract has recently been concluded for the stonework of the basement for $80,000.—The building is to cover an area of 21,800 feet.

CITY ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.

The republicans of the city of Janesville are requested to meet in a mass convention at the Court Room in the city of Janesville, on

Friday the 28th inst,
at 7 o'clock in the evening, to nominate a candidate for member of assembly for said city, to be supported at the ensuing election.

O. J. DEARBORN,
GEO. BARNES,
C. R. GIBBS,
Dist. Com.

Sept. 26th, 1880.

Arrangements for Chicago.

We are informed that arrangements have been completed by which the Wide-Awakes of this city will be carried to and brought back from Chicago next Tuesday for $1 each. Headquarters for the club have already been selected on Lake street. Tickets for the trip may be procured of G. S. Strasburger, at the railroad office.

The fare for others than the Wide-Awakes will be half the usual price.

Wisconsin Conference.

The conference commenced its session this morning at 9 o'clock, Bishop Scott presiding. S. W. Ford was chosen secretary, R. M. Beach and J. C. Dana, assistant secretaries. Standing committees were appointed, and considerable business, mostly of a preliminary nature, was accomplished.

After the organization of the conference, and the appointment of the committee, Bishop Scott made some very wise and impressive remarks, relative to the spiritual character of ministers, and their duty to each other. He spoke also of the great importance of ministerial punctuality.

The business sessions of the conference will commence at 8, and adjourn at 11:45 A. M. Religious services will be held at 2:30 and 7 P. M.

The sermon last evening was by Rev. M. Himebaugh, of Appleton; Subject—"Woe Doing." Rev. T. Wilcox, of Oconomowoc, will preach this evening.

ATTENTION

Wide Awakes!

The Wide Awakes are requested to meet at the Court Room this evening for drill. Let every member come with torch and cape.

A. H. McLEAN, Captain.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday as Mr. Z. S. Doty, Esq., of this city was riding on Mr. Propp's sprinkling wagon, holding on some barrels, while crossing drain he was thrown off, striking upon his head and shoulders and injuring him severely.

On Thursday and Friday mornings a train will leave the passenger depot, over the Milwaukee and Mississippi road, at 8 o'clock, for Madison, for the accommodation of those who may wish to attend the state fair, returning at 8 o'clock in the evening.

To-morrow commences the tournament of the state fairs, at Madison.—The prizes to be played for are those given by the state agricultural society, amounting to $150. Two trumpets, each of the value of $75, are the prizes, open to all machines but those of Madison, to be played for on quantity only, and to be awarded to a first class and a second class machine.

On Friday, all machines on the ground, including those of Madison, will play on distance and quantity; also a race between hook and ladder companies and hose companies with four-wheeled carriages—distance half a mile. Hook and ladder companies to raise a second story ladder against wall, and hose companies to turn round and lay 100 feet of hose. Three prizes to be awarded—two of $75 each, and two of $65 each; one of the latter, however, is set apart for the race, provided there are two or more companies to compete for it.

Friday will be a gala day with the firemen, and those who feel an interest in their maneuvers, will find here food for their fullest enjoyment. We learn that ten or eleven companies (and perhaps more) will be there to compete for the prizes.

A shanty belonging to Jas. O'Neil, near the passenger depot, was burned down last evening about 7 o'clock. The furniture was all saved.

There will be a meeting of the Wide-Awakes this evening, let all interested attend promptly.

OFF FOR THE TOURNAMENT.—The Water Witch boys will leave for Madison to-night at 1 o'clock. Their bell will ring at 12 o'clock to wake-up the members. They will return, we expect, sometime Friday evening, with a genuine prize—"bend down on her, boys!"

The Northwestern Conference of Universalists is in session at Chicago. The Rev. S. C. Bulkeley, of this city, is one of the secretaries.

PREMIUM LIST.—The premium list of our county fair has not been furnished for publication. We should have been glad to have published it in our weekly this week, had a copy been sent to us.

FOUND.—A gold pencil case was picked up on the fair ground during the county fair. The owner can hear of it at this office.

Mr. S. P. Condee, in the course of his duties as census taker, says the Monroe State Rights, has probably discovered the first born in southern Wisconsin, in Mrs. J. D. Cunningham, born in 1826, in a cabin between Hazel Green, in Grant county, and Boston, in Lafayette county.

Mr. Crittenden's recent speech at Independence, in Kentucky, utterly repudiates the idea of resistance from any quarter to constitutionally elected president. There is no danger of any, while the president holds in his gift one hundred thousand public offices.—Baltimore Patriot.

The gentleman so often spoken of in novels, who riveted people with his gaze, has obtained employment in a boiler manufactory.

Second Assembly District.

The republican convention of assembly district No. 2 met at Johnston on Saturday, the 24th inst, according to the call of the committee, for the purpose of nominating a member to the next legislature, and was called to order by P. C. Skillman.

On motion, A. Hoskins was appointed chairman, and A. Whitford secretary. M. T. Walker and A. W. Smith were appointed by the chair a committee on credentials.

The committee upon credentials then made their report which was accepted, and the committee discharged.

On motion, George Sherman and Jacob Fowle were appointed tellers.

On the informal ballot there were twenty-four votes cast, of which E. Vincent received 4, A. M. Carter 2, B. F. Carey 7, J. E. Culver 5 and A. Sherman 6.

On the sixth formal ballot, B. F. Carey received 16 votes, and was declared unanimously nominated.

Upon call of the convention, Mr. Carey responded in a few appropriate remarks and accepted the nomination.

Edward Vincent, W. H. Stark and Guy Carter were appointed by the chair a district committee for the ensuing year.

A. HOSKINS, Chairman.

A. WHITFORD, Secretary.

The death of N. C. Geer, formerly editor and publisher of the Wauegan Gazette, and recently of the Peoria Daily Transcript, was announced a few days since.—We now learn from the Transcript that Mrs. Geer also died on Saturday, after a few days' illness. Her death leaves five children, the youngest a babe of only five weeks old, and the oldest only 12 or 13 years of age, without other protection than that which will be bestowed by kind relatives.

THE TROUT OF LAKE BIGLER.—A friend who has been sojourning in the neighborhood of Lake Bigler, California, during the past three months, informs us that it is not unusual to take mountain trout there which weigh from six to twelve pounds. He himself caught one that weighed ten pounds, and a fisherman was reported to have taken one weighing twenty-three pounds.—Spirit of the Times.

A HUSBAND.—There are one hundred and three Germans in this township who have declared their intention to vote for Lincoln and Hamlin, who voted in 1856 for Buchanan; making a gain of two hundred and six for the republican ticket.—Lafayette (Ind.) Journal 11th.

CITY ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.

The republicans of the city of Janesville are requested to meet in a mass convention at the Court Room in the city of Janesville, on

Friday the 28th inst,
at 7 o'clock in the evening, to nominate a candidate for member of assembly for said city, to be supported at the ensuing election.

O. J. DEARBORN,
GEO. BARNES,
C. R. GIBBS,
Dist. Com.

Sept. 24th, 1860.

Arrangements for Chicago.

We are informed that arrangements have been completed by which the Wide-Awakes of this city will be carried to and brought back from Chicago next Tuesday for $1 each. Headquarters for the club have already been selected on Lake street. Tickets for the trip may be procured of G. S. Strasberger, at the railroad office.

The fare for others than the Wide-Awakes will be half the usual price.

Wisconsin Conference.

The conference commenced its session this morning at 9 o'clock, Bishop Scott presiding. S. W. Ford was chosen secretary, R. M. Beach and J. C. Dana, assistant secretaries. Standing committees were appointed, and considerable business, mostly of a preliminary nature, was accomplished.

After the organization of the conference, and the appointment of the committee, Bishop Scott made some very wise and impressive remarks, relative to the spiritual character of ministers, and their duty to each other. He spoke also of the great importance of ministerial punctuality.

The business sessions of the conference will commence at 8, and adjourn at 11:45 A. M. Religious services will be held at 2:30 and 7 P. M.

The sermon last evening was by Rev. M. Himebaugh, of Appleton; Subject—“Well Doing.” Rev. T. Wilcox, of Oconomowoc, will preach this evening.

ATTENTION

Wide Awakes!

The Wide Awakes are requested to meet at the Court House this evening for drill. Let every member come with torch and cap.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday as Mr. Z. S. Doty, Esq., of this city was riding on Mr. Propp's sprinkling wagon, holding on some barrels, while crossing drain he was thrown off, striking upon his head and shoulders and injuring him severely.

On Thursday and Friday mornings a train will leave the passenger depot, over the Milwaukee and Mississippi road, at 8 o'clock, for Madison, for the accommodation of those who may wish to attend the state fair, returning at 8 o'clock in the evening.

To-morrow commences the tournament of the state fairs, at Madison. The prizes to be played for are those given by the state agricultural society, amounting to $100. Two trumpets, each of the value of $10, are the prizes, open to all machines but those of Madison, to be played for on quantity only, and to be awarded to a first class and a second class machine.

On Friday, all machines on the ground, including those of Madison, will play on distance and quantity; also a race between hook and ladder companies and hose companies with four-wheeled carriages—distance half a mile. Hook and ladder companies to raise a second story ladder against wall, and hose companies to turn round and lay 100 feet of hose. Three prizes to be awarded—two of $15 each, and two of $10 each; one of the latter, however, is set apart for the race, provided there are two or more companies to compete for it.

Friday will be a gala day with the firemen, and those who feel an interest in their maneuvers, will find here fine food for their fullest enjoyment. We learn that ten or eleven companies (and perhaps more) will be there to compete for the prizes.

A shanty belonging to Jas. O'Neil, near the passenger depot, was burned down last evening about 7 o'clock. The furniture was all saved.

There will be a meeting of the Wide-Awakes this evening, let all interested attend promptly.

OFF FOR THE TOURNAMENT.—The Water Witch boys will leave for Madison to-night at 1 o'clock. Their bell will ring at 12 o'clock to wake up the members. They will return, we expect, sometime Friday evening, with a genuine prize—“bend down on her, boys.”

The Northwestern Conference of Universalists is in session at Chicago. The Rev. S. C. Bulkley, of this city, is one of the secretaries.

PREMIER LIST.—The premium list of our county fair has not been furnished for publication. We should have been glad to have published it in our weekly this week, had a copy been sent to us.

FOUND.—A gold pencil case was picked up on the fair ground during the county fair. The owner can hear of it at this office.

Mr. S. P. Condee, in the course of his duties as census taker, says the Monroe State Rights, has probably discovered the first born in southern Wisconsin, in Mrs. J. D. Cunningham, born in 1826, in a cabin between Hazel Green, in Grant county, and Boston, in Lafayette county.

Mr. Crittenden's recent speech at Independence, in Kentucky, utterly repudiates the idea of resistance from any quarter to a constitutionally elected president. There is no danger of any, while the president holds in his gift one hundred thousand public offices.—Baltimore Patriot.

The gentleman so often spoken of in novels, who rivetted people with his gaze, has obtained employment in a boiler manufactory.

Second Assembly District.

The republican convention of assembly district No. 2 met at Johnson on Saturday, the 24th inst., according to the call of the committee, for the purpose of nominating a member to the next legislature, and was called to order by P. C. Stillman.

On motion, A. Hoskins was appointed chairman, and A. Whitford secretary. M. T. Walker and A. W. Smith were appointed by the chair a committee on credentials.

The committee upon credentials then made their report which was accepted, and the committee discharged.

On motion, George Sherman and Jacob Fowle were appointed tellers.

On the informal ballot there were twenty-four votes cast, of which E. Vincent received 4, A. M. Carter 2, B. F. Carey 7, J. E. Calver 5 and A. Sherman 6.

On the sixth formal ballot, B. F. Carey received 16 votes, and was declared unanimously nominated.

Upon call of the convention, Mr. Carey responded in a few appropriate remarks and accepted the nomination.

Edward Vincent, W. H. Stark and Guy Carter were appointed by the chair a district committee for the ensuing year.

A. HOSKINS, Chairman.

A. WHITFORD, Secretary.
